

Where are you?

10th Workshop on Software
Platforms for Systems Biology

October 23-24, 2005

Why Are You Here?

- Meet others working on software tools
- Learn about ongoing work
- Participate in discussions about interoperability and standardization
- Participate in the evolution of SBML

What Is the Agenda?

- 1st day:
 - Morning: presentations about software and exploratory SBML developments
 - Afternoon: a few more presentations, discussions about related projects, discussions about SBML
- 2nd day:
 - Morning: more presentations about software and other projects, more discussions on SBML language development
 - Afternoon: continuing discussions about SBML

Where Will You Eat?

- Lunches provided here on both days
 - 4 varieties of sandwiches (1 vegetarian)
- Dinner on Sunday: unplanned
- Dinner on Monday: self-pay, location to be announced

Is Wireless Internet Available in this Room?

- Yes:
 - Login: icsb
 - Password: Boston2005

What About Reference Materials?

- (Explanation of the theory for this year's meeting)
- All materials available online
 - <http://sbml.org/workshops/tenth>
- Can also use memory sticks to pass around files

Who Are You?

- Printed list of attendees provided
- Everyone please introduce yourselves by telling everyone your name and affiliation (group, institution)
 - Soft speakers please shout if you must